As co-authors of Answer Your Call: Reclaim God's Purpose for Faith, Family and Work, Dick and Martha have positioned themselves at the forefront of the New Evangelization. Through this book and through Dick's efforts as host of The Catholic Business Hour every Saturday morning and evening on EWTN's global Catholic Radio Network and Martha's inspirational columns on the religion page of The Huffington Post, they have touched millions of people in a spiritually uplifting way.

As CEO of Origin Entertainment in Hollywood, Dick is also working tirelessly to bring heroic stories of the good, the true, and the beautiful to the big screen. He is a producer of Cosmic Origins for Father Robert Spitzer and the Magis Institute; a co-executive producer of Mary, Mother of the Christ, which is the prequel to Mel Gibson's Passion of the Christ; and, is currently involved in half a dozen other inspirational movie projects.

Parish Profile -- Msgr. Ray Dreiling, Vicar General Arch Diocese of Fresno

By Steve Weakland

Msgr. Dreiling works closely with Bishop Ochoa and other members of the diocesan administration team, leading the Diocesan offices and ministries in the fulfillment of pastoral goals and objectives set forth by the Bishop. He was appointed to his position in March 2014.

In response to the appointment, and responsibility for serving nearly 1.2 million Catholics in the Diocese, Msgr. Dreiling stated:

“I am deeply grateful to Bishop Ochoa for his confidence in naming me to this important ministry for the entire Diocese. I look forward to serving the Bishop, all the clergy and people of the Diocese, trusting completely in God’s grace and mercy. This is a ministry I never anticipated, but I accept it with joy and enthusiasm.”

In addition to his many duties, he’s the Director of the Office of Child and Youth Protection for the Diocese of Fresno.

In 2015 he was invited to join the PICO (People Improving Communities through Organizing) delegation to attend Pope Francis’s historic visit to Santa Cruz, Bolivia. He was one of five Americans invited to attend. While there he was involved in the discussions important to the Valley such as air quality, water, land use, and unemployment.

Msgr. Dreiling was born in San Francisco and moved to Fresno at the age of two months. He considers the San Joaquin Valley his home.

Since his ordination to the priesthood in 1975, Msgr. Dreiling has served in a variety of administrative and pastoral assignments within the Diocese of Fresno, gaining high respect from fellow clergy and the laity for his administrative skills in context of his pastoral presence. He has served in Fresno, Clovis, and Visalia.

Saint Katharine Drexel
Feast Day is March 3

Nine-Day Novena

Compassionate God, who in your Son Jesus Christ healed the sick, touched the hearts of the troubled and sent disciples to announce good news to the poor, we offer this novena for peace and for the intentions of all those who are praying with us.

Ever Loving God, You called St. Katharine Drexel to teach the message of the Gospel and to bring the life of the Eucharist to Black and Native American peoples. By her prayers and example, enable us to work for justice among the poor and oppressed. Draw us all into the Eucharistic community of your Church that we may be one in you. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Now say one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and one Glory Be.

Speaker Recap

20th Anniversary Celebration Recap

by Norma Williams

A steak and champagne breakfast highlighted the 20th Anniversary celebration of the Catholic Professional and Business Club on Friday, February 10. Festive flowers along with pink and red balloons added a valentine flair.

Inga, a longtime Pardini's server, restaurant owner Jim Pardini, and past presidents were honored. Tom Lang was commended for obtaining highly qualified speakers each month.

Drawings were held for many door prizes consisting of gift certificates, wines and cash.

A bouquet was presented to Mary Borges, who with her late husband Frank, started the club in 1997. Mary spoke of how they had prayed to the Holy Spirit for guidance, and she encouraged members to use their talents to sustain and grow the club.

Bishop Armando Ochoa reported that he was just back from a bishop's conference in Texas. He, too, praised Frank and Mary Borges for starting the club, and he emphasized the need for members to be involved in re-evangelization in the marketplace. Bishop Ochoa concluded the meeting with a prayer for Catholic leaders.

Similar celebrations had been held on the fifth, tenth, and fifteenth anniversaries of the Club. Now, on to the twenty-fifth in 2022!

An Exorcist Explains the Demonic: The Antics of Satan and His Army of Fallen Angels

By Fr. Gabriele Amorth
Sophia Institute Press
Manchester, NH
2016

145 pages, paperback

After Vatican II, the prayer to St. Michael was removed from the Liturgy, but the reality of the demonic, from which the prayer offered our plea to St. Michael, remained.

While exorcisms and demons have provided popular grist for horror films and fiction, the Bible reminds us that they are very real, and our Church offers a remedy for the demonically plagued through exorcism.

But what the heck is exorcism? And how can someone or something come to be plagued with demons, and what is there to do about it?

That is the subject which Fr. Amorth, the Exorcist of Rome, covers in An Exorcist Explains the Demonic, which clearly deals with the subject, starting with reminding the reader that Christ is already victorious over Death and Sin. This is important to remember from the outset, because Fr. Amorth takes us on quite a ride.

Next comes a description of Satan, demons, the fallen angels, and the Satanic cults and other manifestations of Satan. This should strike a chord with anyone living in Fresno—just drive down Divisadero Street and count the number of cult images celebrating Nuestra Senora de la Santa Muerte.

Satan may attack through Possession, Vexation, Obsession, and Infestation, and while Demonic Possessions are kind of rare and often rightly attributed to psychological illness, Vexations, Obsessions, and Infestations are especially troubling as they aren't as rare as one might think. Fr. Amorth gives guidance to help identify if the source of these issues come from Satan. I think that this is the most useful part of the book!

Fr. Amorth continues with accounts of Exorcisms he has conducted, the Eschatology—Death, Judgement, Heaven, Purgatory, and Hell, and concludes with a beautiful Prayer of Deliverance.
