April 10—Matthew Leonard

Profiled by Tom Lang

Due to concerns about the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, our April meeting has been cancelled. Our speaker, Matthew Leonard, will hopefully be rescheduled for a future breakfast meeting to be determined.

Moving forward, changing conditions pertaining to the community spread or lack of spread of in our area will determine CP&BC's prayerful assessments with regard to May and June breakfasts currently scheduled. Our Club's top concern is for the health and safety of all our members. We also are mindful of the need for the faithful to be nourished through the Spirit-led messages and Christian fellowship our breakfasts provide.

Our Holy Father has asked the Virgin Mary to watch over the world in this current moment of crisis. An English-language translation of the Pope's prayer is below:

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Book Review

By John Kasaian

The Seven Wonders of the World | Meditations on the Last Words of Christ | by Fr. George William Rutler | Ignatius Press, San Francisco | 1993 | 158 pages, paper bound

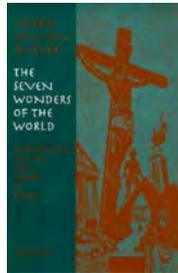

Here's a fascinating little book for Lenten reading.

Fr. Rutler presents the seven last words of Christ on the Cross in contrast with the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Rich in contrasts, Fr. Rutler takes the reader on an Indiana Jones worthy adventure through antiquity that bears a startling resemblance to modern times.

What the Statue of Zeus, the Pyramids of Egypt, The Temple of Diana, The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, The Colossus of Rhodes, The Tomb of Mausolus, and The Lighthouse of Alexandria have to do with the seven last words spoken by Christ is to offer the most incredible, legendary human monuments which crumble when compared to Christ's Passion.

"...the Lord of History, by various acts of grace revives in the human memory awareness of what he has done from the beginning of time as an assurance of what he will do. Time is a silent puzzle and even a ticking horror without the Divine assurance of a reason for it."

Halleluia! All glory, praise and honor to You Most Glorious Lord Jesus! You have risen from the grave, You have conquered sin and death, You have opened the gates to Heaven! Halleluia! All praise and honor to You Most Glorious Lord Jesus!

My Lord, hope is restored, joy and excitement are instilled in many hearts as You quietly, gently and gloriously rise from the dead, and bring forth new life for this fallen world. Sweet Jesus, give me the eyes of faith that I may see and believe in Your Resurrection. Help me to know the effects of Your triumph in my life. As I come to know You, my resurrected Lord, help me to entrust to You all that I am and all that I hope to be. Help me to trust in the abundant Mercy that flows from Your resurrected soul.

Lenten Reflection

By John Gerardi—President

In her sacred liturgy, the Church echoes St. Paul's words to the Corinthians: "Now is the acceptable time, now is the hour of salvation." As we enter the holy season of Lent, we consider the Church's positive and negative recommendations for this season: to fast, pray, and give alms. If sin consists in saying "yes" to ourselves and "no" to God, fasting is the opposite—a training of our wills to say "no" to ourselves, as we prune away unnecessary food, media, or other material goods for Jesus' sake. Through prayer, we unite our souls more closely to God, rendering Him adoration, thanksgiving, contrition for our sins, and petition for what we need to accomplish His will. Through almsgiving, we give God something of our physical substance, uniting it to the spiritual self-gift of our prayer to make an entire donation of our lives, body, and soul.

We encourage our members to pray, fast, and give alms during this holy season, and to take advantage of this acceptable time, this hour of salvation, by participating in the Sacraments, particularly Confession. May God bless you all!

November Speaker Recap—Patrick Coffin

By Norma Williams

Asked if things are going really well in their lives, a majority of Americans admit something is not right. "How did we get to this situation?" asked March breakfast speaker Cy Kellett. Citing high suicide rates, the narcotic/opioid crises, a desperation among many young people, and an overall relativism in society, Cy describes a downward slope of moral/spiritual decline despite an upward slope of technological progress.

In some ways Europeans of the Middle Ages had a better grasp of community. Martin Luther and other Reformation leaders changed Europe as drastically as the internet changed the world in our times. Twelfth century cathedrals where eucharist was the heart of Christendom have been replaced by sports stadiums. For a millennium churches, hospitals, monasteries, and schools were founded upon Jesus' message of evangelism, but 1600 and 1700 intellectuals began to emphasize a "do it ourselves" philosophy focused more on nature. This was further supported by Marx and Darwin and culminated in World War I when post-Christian nations slaughtered one another. Even following the 1945 introduction of the atomic bomb, most of the world did not return to God. Instead we became anesthetized by, and slaves to, media with a loss of contact with reality.

San Diego resident Cy believes there is a powerful revolution underway to return to Jesus and the eucharist which we need to join by living out and never being ashamed of our faith, helping to recover a modern world fit for people. As host of "Catholic Answers Live," he takes heart in the fact that two decades ago there were 70 Catholic radio stations in the U.S., whereas, now there are over 600.
