The Politics of Heaven and Hell

By James V. Schall

Ignatius Press, San Francisco 2020
319 pages paperbound

Here's a long awaited second printing of Fr. Schall's 1984 book on political philosophy exploring the chasm caused by modernity's rejection of Christian, Medieval, and Classical themes which were core in the development of Political Philosophy. This is really interesting stuff if you're curious about how wokeness and Marxism have recently grown in popularity.

The late Fr. Schall was a much beloved professor and scholar in the field of Political Philosophy at Georgetown.

The "Politics of Heaven and Hell" is like a charcuterie board of spicy, intriguing themes one can draw upon for interesting discussions at cocktail parties.

You can get your copy at Cotter's Religious Goods.

February Prayer

Prayer of Teilhard de Chardin Patient Trust

Above all, trust in the slow work of God.
We are quite naturally impatient in everything to reach the end without delay.
We should like to skip the intermediate stages.
We are impatient of being on the way to something unknown, something new.

And yet it is the law of all progress that it is made by passing through some stages of instability—and that it may take a very long time.

And so I think it is with you;
your ideas mature gradually — let them grow, let them shape themselves, without undue haste.
Don't try to force them on,
as though you could be today what time (that is to say, grace and circumstances acting on your own good will)
will make of you tomorrow.

Only God could say what this new spirit gradually forming within you will be.
Give Our Lord the benefit of believing that his hand is leading you, and accept the anxiety of feeling yourself in suspense and incomplete.

February Speaker Recap

Joan Bouchard

The Friday, December 9th Christmas breakfast focused on Catholic education. Once again, we welcomed Our Lady of Perpetual Help School choir members under the direction of Melita Mudri-Zubacz; the voices of the children coupled with the lovely section of songs were an Advent treat. Thank you to Melita, the children, and their parents!

Joan Bouchard, Superintendent for Catholic Education enlightened breakfast attendees about the state of Catholic Education in our Diocese.

Mission Statement:

As Catholic professional and business men and women, we are called to live our Christian ethics not only on Sundays, but throughout our daily lives at home and at work.

Our goal in the Catholic Professional & Business Club shall be to incorporate and uphold our beliefs in every aspect of our daily lives, and to gather to share with others who seek a more ethical business environment.

Each of us shall strive to achieve a commingling of our ethical obligations and our professional obligations in demonstration of the fact that ethics and business need not be mutually exclusive terms.
